

Streams of Multicultural Work

The multicultural streams flow from the multicultural values. These streams represent the main areas of work in multiculturalism and are the focus of MCoS programs and support.

Cultural Continuity

Cultural Continuity empowers ethnocultural organizations, individuals and communities to retain, maintain and evolve distinctive cultural practices and traditions in the Canadian context. Supported through investments in Strategic Initiatives and showcased at events such as Multicultural Celebration at the MacKenzie Art Gallery.

Celebration of Diversity

Celebration of Diversity includes education and festivals that showcase differences and similarities, most often through performance, cuisine and other arts. It includes an awareness that groups that include many perspectives, especially from different cultural world views, lead to greater creativity and innovation. Sponsorship of major events, such as Mosaic, Folkfest, Motif, as well as some Strategic Initiative and many Multicultural Education Initiative investments.

Anti-Racism

Anti-Racism work looks at issues of power and privilege and how they impact individual and systemic discrimination; it usually includes active dialogue to build equity and justice in our institutions and communities. MCoS coordinates an annual March 21st campaign, facilitates Arrêt/Stop Racism Youth Leadership Workshops and invests in member and school activities that recognize and reject racism and discrimination.

Intercultural Connections

Intercultural Connections entails different cultural groups coming together over time to build bridges i.e. exchanges, pen pals, cooperative work, creating safe spaces, dialogue, creative projects, etc. Investments through Intercultural Connections are good examples, as is the BRIDGES project in partnership with Aboriginal Friendship Centres of Saskatchewan (AFCS) and Saskatchewan Association of Immigrant Settlement and Integration Agencies (SAISIA).

Integration

Integration is focused on facilitating the process immigrants and refugees experience beyond settlement to become part of their new Canadian communities. It includes seeing themselves and being seen as contributors and feeling welcome to be themselves in many contexts. INVOLVE is a current partnership with SAISIA and SaskCulture to nurture newcomers as volunteer leaders.
